Translator's Foreward

1- My Methodology of Translation:

The Noble Qur'an, the Book, the Word of God, was brought down to (revealed to) Muhammad, P.B.U.H. in Arabic. The Holy Qur'an is full of very rich verses and texts, rich and deep to the extent that one verse can have more than one meaning. To put it differently, one verse can have a meaning of different angles (different faces as it is said in Arabic). Therefore, the Holy Qur'an needs to be explained, firstly to Arabic speaking people. This is why Arabic speaking Muslims need what is called Tafseer (explanation of the Qur'an). This is one main reason why it is very hard to translate the Qur'an to other languages. Because of its wealth of meanings, I think it is not proper to translate it literally; therefore, I tried my best to convey the main purpose of each meaning.

On the other hand, some of the Names of God have more than one meaning, as is the case in: At-Tayyeb, As-Subbooh, Al-Mutakabbir... etc. In this case, my attempt is to show the dominant meaning and to clarify its main "theme", so as the reader will find it easier to grasp and understand the profound nature of each of these Great Names. This may explain why I deviated from literal translation.

2- The Translation of Quranic Verses:

I, only, used and quoted the book "The Translation of the Meanings of the Noble Qur'an" by Dr. Muhammad Muhsin Khan and Dr. Muhammad Taqiyy ad-Din Al-Hilali, published by "King Fahad Complex for the Printing of the Holy Qur'an", Saudi Arabia.

This book is considered the most accurate translation (from Arabic to English) of the Holy Qur'an.

3- The Names of God:

In the Noble Qur'an, The Names of God were described as "Alhusna", which in Arabic-literaltranslation means good or beautiful. However, this literal translation is not comprehensive enough to reflect the profound meanings of the Names. The Names are in fact much more than beautiful: they clearly describe Him, the Praiseworthy, as the Ultimate Perfect in all of His Names: Perfect in His Life (The Eternal), Perfect in His Mercy (The Most Merciful)...etc. Therefore, I thought it is more proper and (certainly suitable to His Majesty) to call His Names as the Perfect – rather than the Beautiful- Names of God.

4- The Translation of the Word "Abd":

The literal translation of the Arabic word "Abd" means a slave. However, many translators tried not to use the word slave, because of its negative connotation, as a human being who is bought and sold (in the old ages), and they thought that using this word would leave a false – or negative - impression about Islam, among non-Muslims. They, therefore, translated this word as a "servant", and thus they described mankind as servants to God. However, I chose not to use the word "servant", as its meaning is quite contrary to the Name: Al-Ghaniyy = the Self-Sufficient and the Rich. God had described Himself in the Noble Our'an as the Ultimate Self-Sufficient Who is certainly not in need of anything or anybody; therefore, the word "servant to God" does not seem to me to be appropriate at all. Slaves we are, in the sense that none of us had the freedom to determine his/her birth or death, as this is predetermined for us all, by God, the Praiseworthy. Even if we serve the Cause of God, this does not make us servants to God, as some translators have argued.

5- Using the Word "God" or "Allah":

Most books and translations used the Word "Allah" when referring to God and when referring to the hadeeth: "God (Allah) has ninety nine Names...". The hadeeth was told in Arabic by the Arabic prophet, P.B.U.H. I have not used the word "Allah" in my translation, because I think non-Arabic speaking people do not know exactly what it means, and besides, they may think this word is restricted to the Arabs for worshipping or referring to God. In English "God" is understood as the Creator & the Worshipped. Therefore, using the word "God" seems to be a universal and comprehensive word - for English -speaking people – as the meaning of the Worshipped, and this should enable them to easily refer to Him when using this Word. I used this Word as I realize that English-speaking people, when they supplicate, they say "O God"; they do not say: "O Allah". This translation is for English-speaking people all over the world, and the intention here is to make it easier for them to know "God" in a practical method. This should not diminish the fact that the Word "Allah" is His Greatest Name, and His Reference Name.

6- Capital Letters:

Capital letters were used only for God's Names, Attributes and Descriptions, but not for His: creation, creatures, prophets, angels, and slaves. This is to differentiate between what belongs to Him, and what He created, the All-Mighty.

7- Methodology of Choosing the Names:

Being in constant close contact with the author Maher Bin Moqaddam, may God guard him, and having read similar books about the Perfect Names, and having seen many translations, I became convinced that this book is among the most readable among English-speaking readers. Sheikh Maher referred to (and consulted) only reliable and reputable sheikhs, to compile the Names, and referred mainly to accurate hadeeth narrations by Al-Bukhari and Muslim (The two most trustworthy hadeeth narrators).

The majority of the Perfect Names were taken out of Quranic verses, while the remaining Names were chosen from Al-Sunnah: the sayings of prophet Muhammad, P.B.U.H. Each source (evidence) of each Name is shown at the top of each section in order to prove the credibility of the methodology. Some references were not shown in this English edition because the sources were written only in Arabic. However, all sources are clearly shown in all of Arabic editions.

This version is the translation of the summarized version. Sheikh Maher has written 3 versions: summarized, medium and detailed editions.

Finally, I know that my translation from Arabic to English, no matter how accurate it may be, it must fall short of conveying the profound meanings of the Perfect Names of God, as He is so Sublime and Perfect that He is incomprehensible to human mind; therefore, my translation cannot escape the defects and drawbacks that are inherent in every human endeavor.

I pray to God, and ask His Guidance to help me to show the beauty of His Names, and show them to readers throughout the world, in a manner that is pleasing and satisfying to Him, The Lord of all worlds.

My gratitude to His Glory and Favors, for helping me to humbly contribute to this most honorable work.

The Slave to God

Introduction (1)

By: Sheikh Shuaib Al-Arnaoott*, may God bless him.

Thanks to God, and peace and greetings on His messenger.

In saheeh Al-Bukhari, hadeeth number (2736), it is said: "God (Allah) has ninety nine Names, one hundred minus one, whoever counted Them would enter Paradise". Scholars have been different in the meaning of counting the Names. We think it means: counting Their connotations, understanding Their meanings, and to contemplate and implement Them.

Many scholars have written many books about this hadeeth, and they relied on sound evidences from the Book and correct narrations, demonstrating the benefits of These Names. Lately, I have come across one of those books, by the scholar Al-Moqaddam, which is named:

"The Perfect Names of God (Allah): Their Grandeur, Sublimity and Benefits, in Light of the Book and Al-Sunnah"

I have found that the author in his book, has included the linguistic meanings of the Names, Their evidences, and Their grandeur. This will make the Names more clear to the Muslim, so as he/she can supplicate God (Allah) by Them, in a way that makes him closer to God and to Paradise, which God had created for the faithful slaves. The book of scholar Maher - may God bless him -, is special in that it contained true evidences of the credibility of the Names, and furthermore, he added explanations of the Names told by different scholars. His methodology in collecting the Names is the same path as of the people of Al-Sunnah, and the same belief of the followers of the companions of the Messenger. This is the path that we think is correct and right, thanks be to God, the Exalted.

blessed God had the book of scholar Al-Mogaddam, to the extent that many editions were published within a short period of time, and I hope this is an indication of God's Satisfaction with the benefits of this book. I encourage the author to continue his research efforts so as to provide the people what is beneficial to Islam and Muslims. I recommend for every Muslim person, Muslim man and woman, to read this blessed book in the homes, in mosques and in religious gatherings.

And thanks be to God, Whose Favors Are needed.

And peace and greetings on our prophet, Muhammad, and on his relatives and companions all.

Introduction (2)

By Professor, DR. Muhammad Al-Tabtabaie*, may God bless him.

Thanks to God, the Lord of all worlds and peace be upon our prophet Muhammad and upon his family and companions all.

The purpose of creating mankind is to worship God Alone, without associating any partner with Him, He, the Exalted said: "And I (Allah) created not jinn and mankind except that they should worship Me (Alone)" (Adh-Dhariyat: 56).

Professor, DR. Muhmmad Al-Tabtabaie: Former Dean of Islamic Studies, Kuwait University. President of World Conference for Contemporary Islamic Issues.

Faith cannot be accomplished except by knowing the Creator, the Praiseworthy, and the more the human being knows his Lord, the more he will fear Him, The Exalted said: "It is only those who have knowledge among His slaves that fear Allah" (Fatir: 28). To know His Perfect Names means to know Him, for P.B.U.H. said: "God (Allah) has ninety nine Names, one hundred minus one, whoever counted Them would enter Paradise", and the Name Allah is His Greatest Name, and every Name is ascribed to It; therefore, it is said: The Generous and the Sympathetic are among Allah's Names, but it cannot be said among the Names of the Generous or the Sympathetic is Allah.

Sheikh Al-Nawawi said: "The scholars have agreed that this hadeeth does not include all of the Names of God, the Exalted, meaning that He has more than ninety nine Names, but this hadeeth makes the point that whoever counts These Names would enter Paradise; therefore, it is about counting and knowing specific and certain ninety nine Names, and the other hadeeth explains this point "I ask You God (Allah) by every Name that You have called Yourself by, or You have kept for Yourself in the world of unknown with You", and the reason they are one hundred minus one is because God is Wetr (Singlular in Name and Number as the odd number); and He loves odd numbers." Al-Nawawi also said: "it means the right of God to be the Only One, without a partner or an equal, and the meaning of Him loving odd numbers, meas He loves the odd numbers of religious duties and actions". (Such as praying to Him extra 3 times instead of extra 2 or 4 times, glorifying Him verbally (Tasbeeh) 9 or 11 times or ... instead of 8 or 10 or 12 times).

The scholars disagreed in the meaning of "counting the Names". Some said it means knowing them by heart, others said it means differentiating among them (knowing their differences), others said it means knowing their meanings and believing in their connotations. And even others said it means to implement them, and it seems to me the first meaning is more accurate.

We are in front of a nice comprehensive book by brother sheikh Maher bin Moqaddam, may God bless his knowledge, and his care to gather what is useful in the field of faith, that he demonstrated in a simple and pleasant style. May God bestow benevolence on him, and thanks to God, The Lord of all worlds.

Introduction (3)

By: Professor, DR. Mahmood Al-Reddwani*, may God bless him.

Thanks to God, and peace be upon His messenger. It was proved by God's (Allah's) messenger, P.B.U.H., that the number is ninety nine, which was illustrated by the hadeeth: "God (Allah) has ninety nine Names, one hundred minus one, whoever counted Them would enter Paradise". However, it was not proved by the prophet, P.B.U.H., appointing (specifying) the

* Professor, DR. Mahmood Al-Reddwani: Former professor of Dogma and Contemporary Religions, at University of King Khaled. Establishing member of Scientific Committee for Dogma Sciences at College of Origin of Religion, at Islamic University, Al Madeenah Al Munnawarah. Perfect Names, nor saying them as one group in a particular text or in one hadeeth.

At the end of the second decade and in the beginning of the third Hijri decade, three of the hadeeth narrators attempted to compile the Names by their personal endeavors, either by deducing them from the Book (The Quran) and Al-Sunnah, or by quoting from others during that time, among whom was Al-Waleed Bin Muslim Ashshami, the scholar of Bany Ommayyah (195 H), who was not a reliable scholar, and who compiled ninety nine names and by them tried to explain the relevant hadeeth.

Other narrators, after him, took the same names and attached them to the same hadeeth; therefore, most people thought that the names are an integral part of the hadeeth of the prophet, P.B.U.H, and hence, they learned them by heart and thus the names became widespread among the general public since that time until now. And although when Imam Al-Turmidhi wrote those names, he indicated their strangeness, meaning that they were not sound and not proved, yet the public learned them by heart and even wrote them on mosques as if they were Quranic verses or prophetic hadeeths, which is not the case, becasue some of the names are proved to be true and others are not proper to call God with.

The best of hadeeth narrators agreed that those names were not appointed (told) in any true hadeeth, as prince Sanaani had said. Ibn Taymeyah (the great Imam) said: "The names were not proved to be said by the prophet (P.B.U.H), and the public had taken them from Al-Turmidhi narration that was taken before from Al-Waleed Bin Muslim".

Those names were learned by heart for more than a thousand years. It is very important to indicate that every name of those names, cannot be accepted to be valid except by a clear evidence either from the Book (The Quran) or from true hadeeths of God's messenger, P.B.U.H., because different Imams and scholars have all agreed that the Perfect Names of God are based on true texts (the Quran and true hadeeths), and that we have to accept only the Names that are based on clear texts, without any addition or reduction. The Perfect Names of God are not subject to logic or rational thinking, as the mind by itself cannot recognize God's Names that are proper to His Sublimity, and it cannot comprehend what God deserves among the descriptions of Beauty and Supremacy; therefore, to call God by a name which He did not call Himself by is to say something without knowing it, and this by itself is something that God had banned the slaves from doing. Therefore, our role towards the Perfect Names is to collect and count them out of the Book and Al-Sunnah and then to learn them by heart, understand them and to supplicate with them, and not to derive or create new names.

We want to indicate that those names that were circulating among Muslims for hundreds of years, that were gathered by Al-Waleed Bin Muslim, are forbidden even if their meanings were true, are:

I was pleased to read the book of my brother sheikh Maher Bin Moqaddam, which he called: (The Perfect Names of God (Allah): Their Grandeur, Sublimity and Benefits, in Light of the Book and Al-Sunnah), whereby he restricted himself to the Perfect Names that were taken out of true texts of the Book and hadeeths. It is a valuable book that the Muslim needs to read in order to know the Perfect Names of God and to supplicate by Them.

God, The Exalted, said: "And (all) the Most Beautiful Names belong to Allah, so call on Him by them, and leave the company of those who belie or deny (or utter impious speech against) His Names. They will be requitted for what they used to do". (Al-Araf: 180).

I ask God to reward him (the author), and that all Muslims benefit from this book, and blessings of God on our prophet Muhammad and his family and companions.

Introduction By the Author

Thanks to God (Allah), The lord of all worlds and peace be upon the best of prophets and messengers, our prophet Muhammad, and upon his family and companions.

Whoever in his heart has interest for knowledge or love for worship should make it a top priority to know and understand the Perfect Names of God and His Attributes, for knowing Them is considered the most honorable knowledge, and there is nothing more sublime and esteemed than knowing our Lord, as Ibn Alqayyem had said: "Those who love their Lord need to explore and deeply understand the Perfect Names of God, for the healthy hearts and comfortable selves will be greatly pleased by the truth of the Names". The best of messengers Muhammad, P.B.U.H had said that God has ninety nine Names, among His many Names, and knowing Them would be rewarded by living in Paradise; therefore, scholars and Imams, in different places and times, attempted to count and prove them.

Unfortunately, most Muslims today are not aware of the importance of the Names, and even worse, many Muslims supplicate by unproven names, names that are widespread without any evidence.

Since this matter is extremely important, some enlightened scholars strived hard to collect and choose the Names out of clear evidences by proper methods (1).

I have sought the assistance of God, The Praiseworthy, firstly and lastly, to collect the

Names out of different sources and to explain them in a simplified style that is not too long or too short, and whatever is correct in this book is undoubtedly from God, the Exalted, and if there is any inaccuracy in this book, it must be from myself and from Satan, because God and His messenger are innocent and free from this. I hope God will guide us all to righteousness, and I ask God, the Praiseworthy, to reward the author of this book, its reader and its publisher, the ultimate reward, the eternal Paradise.

Our last supplication, is thanks to God, The Lord of all worlds.

The Objectives of Counting the Perfect Names of God (Allah):

Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) said "God (Allah) has ninety nine Names, one hundred minus one, whoever counted Them would enter Paradise"(1).

Counting the Perfect Names and knowing them is the origin of all religious knowledge, for whoever knows them properly, would have in effect known all aspects of religion, for this knowledge is the essence of religion. Imam Ibn Al-Qqayyim has explained the meaning of counting as:

1- Counting the words (Names) and knowing Them by heart.

- 2- Understanding Their meanings and significances.
- 3- Invoking God, glory to Him, by these Names, and to worship Him by using and repeating Them. Knowing Them entails achieving Them in the heart which will be filled by the effects of this knowledge, for every Name has an effect in the faithful heart, the heart that is submissive to God, and the slave cannot get, in this life or in the Hereafter, a thing greater than these Names. God said "And all the Perfect Names belong to Allah, so call on Him by them". (Al-Araf: 180). God told us that He has the Most Beautiful Names that are perfect, and He distinguished Himself by Them. This verse indicated that the best way to call or supplicate Him is by His Perfect Names.

Supplication by the Names has 2 types:

1. Supplication of Need:

Asking God by a Name suitable (related) to the need, by saying for example, "O God, please forgive me, You are the Oft-Forgiving", "O God, the All-Provider, please provide me with sustenance", or supplicating by a Name that has many meanings like: Allah, Ar-Rabb= the Lord, As-Samad=the Self-Sufficient and the Master.

2. Supplication of Worship:

To praise and worship God by His Perfect Names, so that when the slave knows that God is All-Knowing and All-Aware, then he will watch his tongue and his actions so as not to displease God, and when he knows that God is Great and Glorious, he will pursue glorifying God by every possible legitimate way. God, the Praiseworthy, loves worshipping and praising Him by His Names, the All-Knowing loves the knowledgeable person, and the Thankful loves thanking. The best worshipper, is the one who worships his Lord by all Names. The true believer should use both types of supplications, the supplication of need and the supplication of worship, use them all the time for all of his affairs.

Important Recommendation

Knowing the Perfect Names is very beneficial, and the more you know Them, the higher ranking and status you will get from God in Paradise.

The Names:

Allah (1)

God said; "Allah! La ilaha illa Huwa (none has the right to be worshipped but He), Al-Hayyul-Qayyuum (the Ever-Living, the One Who sustains and protects all that exists)". (Al-Baqarah: 255), Al Kursi verse).(2)

This blessed and exalted Name is the greatest of all Perfect Names and is inclusive of all Supreme Names and also indicative of Them overall. He had uniquely distinguished Himself by It, and He had prevented the ignorant ones from calling themselves by this Name.

⁽¹⁾ This Name was not given a number because it is the reference (origin) Name of all added Names, as will be explained later.

⁽²⁾ This verse All-Kursi is the greatest verse of all of the Holy Quran.

God Said: "And if you (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) ask them: "Who has created the heavens and the earth", they will certainly say: "Allah"". (Lugman: 25).

This Great Name contains all of the Perfect Names and Supreme Attributes, for if the slave invokes Him by this Name and says: "Allahom",(1) he would be invoking Allah with all of His Perfect Names and Supreme Attributes.

Therefore, God, the Exalted, adds all other Perfect Names to this Name, as He said: "And (all) the Most Beautiful Names belong to Allah". (Al-Araf: 180).(2)

And it is said that (Ar-Rahman = the Most Merciful, and Ar-Raheem= the Merciful..." are among the Names of "Allah" but cannot be said "(Allah) is one of the Names of (Ar-Rahman) or one of the Names of (Al-Aazeez = the All-Mighty).

⁽²⁾ As in the hadeeth: "God (Allah) has ninety nine Names...".

This Great Name was mentioned in the Holy Quran (2724) times.

The Linguistic Meaning:

The origin of Allah is (Al-Ilah). Ilah in Arabic has four meanings: The Worshipped, the Refuge, the One by which the minds are bewildered & the Greatly Beloved.

Allah, the Exalted, is the One Whom the hearts of the slaves idolize, out of: love and humbleness, fear and expectation, glorification, obedience, and as a refuge during times of disasters and need. He is the True God, That deserves to be worshipped Alone, and all that is worshipped other than Him, between His Throne and the bottom of the earth, is wrong and false.

THE Grandeur of Allah

Prophet Muhammad Peace Be Upon Him said "I can't count enough praise on You, as You had commended Yourself". (1)

How can anyone count the grandeur of this Name which among anything perfect, has the ultimate perfection? For whenever this Great Name is mentioned in any small thing, it would make this thing bigger, or in any good thing, it would make it grow and bless it. This Noble Name removes the sickness, makes the fear disappear, the grief to be relieved, and whenever it is held on by the weak, It will make him stronger, the humble will become more powerful, the poor richer, and the defeated victorious. By this Name, distresses are disappeared, blessings are descended, supplications are answered, ranks are raised, and harms are being avoided, for there is nothing greater than the Grandeur of Allah.

(Allah) The Greatest Name:

Most scholars stated that this Great Name is the greatest Name of God, the Name when invoked by It, He would respond, and when asked by It, He would give, for It is the Only Name that is included in all of the sayings of the prophet (Peace Be Upon Him) in which it was said that this is the greatest Name; of these sayings are:

1- The prophet (Peace Be Upon Him) heard one of his companions invoke with this supplication: "Allahom (Allah), I ask You that I testify to You that You Are Allah, there is no God worthy to be worshipped but You, Al-Ahad (The only God), As-Samad (The Self-Sufficient and the Master), He begets not, nor was He begotten, and there is none co-equal or comparable unto Him". He (Peace Be Upon Him) said: "I swear by the One Who my soul is in His Hand, he had asked God by His Greatest Name by Which whenever invoked by, He would respond, and whenever asked by, He would give". 2- He heard a man, after praying say "Allahom (Allah) I ask You that You have all thanks, there is no God worthy to be worshipped but You, Al-Mannan (the Bestower of Favors), the Maker of the heavens and the earth, Who has all glorification and honor, Al-Hayy (the Ever-Living and the Eternal), Al-Qayyoom (the Sustainer of All)". He (Peace Be Upon Him) said: "he had asked God by His Greatest Name, the One by Which if invoked by, Would respond and If asked by, Would give".(1)

God, the Exalted, Said: "All the praises and thanks be to Allah". (Al-Fatihah: 1)

The Exalted, also said: "(It will be said to them): Salam (peace be on you)- a Word from the Lord (Allah), Most Merciful". (Ya-sin: 58).

The Linguistic Meaning:

Ar-Rabb is called on the owner, the master, the arranger, the raiser, the guardian, the bestower, and the reformer. It cannot be called on anyone if it is without a definite article (the) except only on God, the Exalted, for if it is without the definite article, it could be named on humans if it is only two words, such as lord of the home, or lord of the horse. Example, the Lord = God, while: lord of the home = called on the person owning the home; therefore (The Lord) can be called only on God, the Exalted.

This Glorious Name contains many descriptive actions such as: creating, bestowing, forbidding, giving, and restraining.

His Lordship has Two Types:

1-General Lordship:

This is for all of His creation, the believers and disbelievers, the faithful and unfaithful salves, and it is His Upbringing them with creation, sustenance, arrangement, reform and mastery.

2-Special Lordship:

It is upbringing for His followers by repairing their hearts, souls and morals; therefore, they have often invoked Him by this Glorious Name as they request from Him this special upbringing. All creatures thank Him for His Lordship:

God, the Exalted said: "And it will be said: all the praises and thanks be to Allah, the Lord of the Alamin (mankind, jinn and all the exists)". (Az-Zumar: 75)

This informs us that the whole universe -whether talking or brute creatures - thank God, the Lord of all the worlds, after His Just and Fair Judgements among all of His creation, and this thanking will come from both His followers and enemies.

The Grandeur of Ar-Rabb = the Lord

His Lordship is so grand and glorious that it is free from all flows and defects.

God the Exalted said: "And glorified(1) be Allah, the Lord of the Alamin (mankind jinn and all the exists)". (An-Naml: 8).

The Lordship is so grand that it is a lordship of concealment and forgiveness, God, the Exalted said: "A fair land and an Oft-Forgiving Lord!". (Saba: 15). And it is a lordship of mercy and sympathy, God, the Exalted said: "Our Lord is the Most Gracious, Whose Help is to be sought". (Al Anbiya: 112). It is a lordship of honor, power and might, God, the Exalted, said: "The Lord of the heavens and the earth and all that is between them, the All-Mighty, the Oft-Forgiving". (Sad: 66). And it is so grand that He, the Exalted, had settled over His Throne and He Alone arranged His Kingdom, for the procedures of the arrangements are given by Him to His angels every hour; He creates and gives sustenance, gives life and takes it away, raises and lowers, gives and forbids, restrains and expands, and responds to the needy.

Ar-Rahman The Most Merciful

God, the Exalted, said: "And your Ilah (God) is one Ilah (God-Allah), La ilaha illa Huwa (there is none who has the right to be worshipped but He), the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful". (Al-Bagrrah: 163)

These two Glorious Names are derived from the word (Ar-Rahma), which means the exaggeration of (mercy). (Ar-Rahma) also means: tenderness, graciousness, sympathy, compassion and kindness.

(Ar-Rahman) is more powerful linguistically than (Ar-Raheem) as It comprehends all meanings of mercy; therefore, the differences between (Ar-Rahman) and (Ar-Raheem) are:

- 1- (Ar-Rahman) is the One Who has comprehensive mercy, a mercy that has no equal for it, that has encompassed all the creation: human beings and jinn, believers and disbelievers- in this life-, and the believers in the Hereafter. (Ar-Raheem) is the One with wide mercy to the believers during Doomsday, and it is exclusive to them, and thus the believers have the largest share of these two Names.
- 2- (Ar-Rahman) is indicative of the intrinsic self attribute which is adhered to Him all the time, whereas (Ar-Raheem) is indicative of effective attribute which is related to His Will and Desire.
- 3- (Ar-Rahman) is an exclusive Name to God, the Exalted, and cannot be called on anyone else, whereas (Ar-Raheem) can be named for the slave.

The Vastness of the Mercy of God, the Exalted: The combination of these two Glorious Names indicates the perfection of His Mercy and its vastness, for whatever benefits, happiness and good things that ever happen within all of the universe, they happen as a result of His Mercy, and whatever evil, problems and bad things He prevented them from, is also as a result of His Mercy; therefore He often combines the Name (Ar-Rahman), the Most Merciful with His settling over His Throne, because the Throne is the greatest of all that was created and It is also surrounding them (the created) and the Mercy is the widest of all attributes; therefore, He had settled over the greatest creature by His Widest Attributes.

The Grandeur of Ar-Rahman, Ar-Raheem

They are grand to the extent that" Allah had created one hundred mercies, and out of them He sent down one mercy for humans, jinn and animals, and with this one mercy they become compassionate and merciful to one another. He delayed (held) ninety nine mercies with which He has mercy upon His slaves on Doomsday", in another saying "God, the day He created the heavens and the earth, He created one hundred mercies, each mercy is as vast as the vastness between the heavens and the earth."(1)

"His Mercy is so glorious that it is stronger and has precedence over His Wrath".(2)

"It is also glorious to the extent that it is not exclusive to the faithful slave but also includes their offspring out of honor to them"(3).

Al-Hayy The Ever-Living and The Eternal

God, the Exalted, said: "And put your trust (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) in the Ever-Living One Who dies not". (Al Furqan: 58).

God, the Exalted is the Ever-Living: He has eternal and perfect life, as It is perfect life in Its Existence, perfect in Its Time, for He is Alive, without a beginning and without an and. His Life was not preceded by nothingness and will not be followed by demise, will not suffer from decline or from cessation. His Life is so perfect that He is not affected by: somnolence or sleep, or weakness, or distraction or inattention, or forgetfulness. It is so complete that He has complete ability, effective and enforceable will and desire, in all times.

The Grandeur of Al-Hayy

This Sublime Name combines all self characteristics as It is the origin of Them such as: Awareness, Hearing, Seeing, Self-Esteem, Ability, Will, Desire, Greatness and all other Attributes of perfection.

Al-Qayyoom The Sustainer of All

God, the Exalted said: "And (all) faces shall be humbled before (Allah), Al-Hayyul-Qayyuum (the Ever-Living, the One Who sustains and protects all that exists)". (Ta-Ha: 111)

The Linguistic Meaning:

Al-Qayyoom is the guardian (caretaker) of the thing by preserving, keeping and reforming it.

God, the Exalted, is the Sustainer: Who took care of things single-handedly, for He didn't need anyone for anything, having complete self sufficiency and ability; He is the Guardian of every self by upbringing, taking care of and managing it, for everything else needs Him all the time. No existence and no accomplishment can be sustained without Him, even the Throne and Its carriers, for the Throne stood erect because of God, and the Throne's carriers could not stand up without Him, the Exalted (1), for they all are poor compared to Him, whereas He is Self-Sufficiently Rich.

The Grandeur of Al-Qayyoom

It is inclusive of all self characteristics such as creating, bestowing, granting, giving life and taking it away; therefore, God, the Exalted, combines (connects) between (Al-Hayy) and (Al-Qayyoom) because all Perfect Names orbit around these two Names, for the perfection of Self Attributes (Essence) lies in (Al-Hayy), whereas the perfection of Attributes of Actions lies in (Al-Qayyoom); therefore, some scholars stated that these two Great Names are the greatest Name for they to the Prophet (P. B. U.

H.) when he heard someone invoke by saying: "Allahom (Allah) I ask You that You have all thanks, there is none has the right to be worshipped but You, Al-Mannan (the Bestower of Favors), the Maker of the heavens and the earth, Who has all glorification and honor, Al-Hayy (the Ever-Living and the Eternal), Al-Qayyoom (the Sustainer of All), so (P.B.U.H.) said: "he had asked God by His Greatest Name, the One by Which if invoked by, Would respond, and if asked by, Would give (1).

Al-Aaliyy The High

Al-Aala The Most High

Al-Mutaal The Sublime and The High

God, the Exalted said: "And He is the Most High, the Most Great". (Al-Baqarah 255).

And He, the Exalted said: "Glorify the Name of your Lord, the Most High". (Al-A'la: 1)

He, the Exalted, also said: "All-Knower of the Unseen and the seen, the Most Great, the Most High". (Ar-Rad: 9)

The Linguistic Meaning:

Al-Aaliyy: Is derived from (Alooluw) which is loftiness and sublimity, which indicates the highness of the place or the position. Al-Aala means comparatively the highest, indicates higher than everything and better in its description. Al-Mutaal: Derived from Alooluw and it is the complete loftiness, indicating this Attribute (Name) is exclusive only to Him.

These Glorious Names indicate derivation and similar meaning, thus entail the perfect and absolute height of God, for He is the High, the Highest and the Sublime by His Essence over all of His creation, Settled over His Throne in a manner that only suits His Majesty and Grandeur. He is the High in His Stature, Significance and Esteem Who has the highest of all attributes of perfection and none can compete with Him. He has the highest of dominance and supremacy, and none can dispute nor defeat Him. He is High above any flow, defect, and deficiency. He is sublimely High over the equals, peers and opponents. He is above what the disbelievers and atheists had ascribed to Him. He is the High above every perfection that attempts to approach Him or approach His Sublimity.

The Grandeur of Al-Aaliyy, Al-Aala and Al-Mutaal

They indicate the attributes of His Highness which is inseparable from Him forever, which is a part of His Essence, for He is always High over His creation (1). The grandeur of His Highness above everything is evident in the fact that nothing between His Throne and the bottom of the earth can be hidden from Him, for He sees and hears all secrets. And He descends to this life every night while He is at the ultimate height (altitude).

Al-Kareem The Generous

God, the Exalted said: "O man! What has made you careless about your Lord, the Most Generous". (Al-Infitar: 6)

The Linguistic meaning:

Al-kareem: Benevolent with lasting benefit.

Al-kareem: the one who combines types of benevolence, honor and virtues, and is also called on nice, forgiving and noble person.

God, the Exalted, is the Generous: no generous person can match Him, and no equal can parallel Him, for He is the Oft- Benevolent, Greatly Beneficial, without a limit or a restriction. He starts the boon before worthiness, begins the favor without asking for a reward, and He, the Praised, gives beyond hope and doesn't care how much He gives, and for whom he gives. He is the Generous: He has the honor of His Essence, Perfect Attributes, and purity of all defects and flows. He forgives the sins of his followers, forgives their misdeeds, and exchanges the misdeeds with good deeds. If you consider all what is said about the meaning of generosity, you would know that what is owed to God because of it is uncountable.

The Grandeur of Al-Kareem

He makes it easy to receive His Generosity and Benevolence by the simplest means and causes, for there is no partition (obstacle) between Him and His slaves. He is Glorious that He gives without a purpose and without compensation. His Glory is clear in the fact that no requests or demands no matter how big and large they might be, they cannot be big enough for His Generosity (1).

Al-Wadood The Lovable

God, the Exalted, said: "And He is Oft-Forgiving, full of love (towards the pious who are real true believers of Islamic Monotheism)." (Al Buruj: 14).

The Linguistic Meaning:

Al-wudd: Al-Wudd is the purest and greatest type of love. Al-Wadood has two meanings: The first: He loves His prophets, messengers, angels and faithful slaves. The second: He is the Lovable Who is greatly loved by His prophets and followers, to the extent that nothing is more lovable to them than Him, Who deserves to be loved by all the love and to be loved by the slave more than the slave's hearing, sight and all of his loved ones. God, the Exalted: Loves His righteous slaves, He loves them and they love Him, and out of His Love to them He makes it easy for people to love them, makes them lovable to His creation; therefore, He makes His Love felt in the hearts of His followers, and people of heavens, and people of the earth, without their begging.

The Grandeur of Al-Wadood

He is so Glorious that the slave's love for his God is considered as a favor and grace from Him, as it is not because of the slave's ability, for He had loved His slave before; therefore, He had put the Love (of Him) inside the heart of the slave, and then when the slave loved Him -in return- God rewarded the slave with another love, and that is the favor of truth.

Al-Ghafoor The Oft-Forgiving

Al-Ghaffarr The All-Forgiving

God, the Exalted, said: "Declare (O Mohammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم) unto My slaves, that truly, 1 am the Oft-Forgiving, the Most-Merciful". (Al-Hijr: 49).

And, God, the Exalted, also said: "I Said (to them): Ask forgiveness from your Lord, verily, He is Oft-Forgiving". (Nuh: 10).

The Linguistic Meaning:

Al-Ghufr: Concealment.

Allah, The Exalted, is Al-Ghafoor, Al-Ghaffarr:

The concealer of His slaves' sins, covers their sins so that none sees the sins except Him, and overlooking their flaws. He, the Exalted, forgives the slave's sins time after time, forever, and whenever the slave repeats his repentance of the sin, the Lord repeats His Forgiveness. The difference in meaning is (Al-Ghafoor) is the One Who forgives the sins no matter how large they might be, and (Al-Ghaffarr) forgives the sins no matter how frequent they might be; therefore, (Al-Ghafoor) for the type of sins, and (Al-Ghaffarr) for the quantity of sins.(1).

The Grandeur of Al-Jabbarr

He is so Sublime that He doesn't compel anyone for faith or for disbelief, rather He gives them the choice, He said: "Then whosoever wills, let him believe; and whosoever wills, let him disbelieve." (Al-Kahf: 29). His Grandeur is that He possesses attributes of dominance and might as well as attributes of mercy, fairness and wisdom. With His Compelling Ability, He conquered the oppressors, gave victory to the oppressed, and helped His soldiers over the disbelievers.

Ar-Raoof The Sympathetic

God, The Exalted, said; "Truly, Allah is full of Kindness, the Most Merciful towards mankind." (Al-Baqarah: 143).

The Linguistic Meaning:

Ar-Raafa: The extreme mercy, and the highest of its meaning. Difference between Ar-Raafa (Sympathy) and Ar-Rahma (Mercy): Sympathy is wider than mercy, for it is a grace combined with pleasure, while Mercy might be painful at once but succeeded by pleasure. Mercy might be hated but has its benefits. Sympathy cannot be hated. Our Lord is the Sympathetic: having mercy over all His slaves, Compassionate for them, for He doesn't ask them for things they don't have the ability to do, on the contrary, He only asks them for less than they actually can do.

The Grandeur of Ar-Raoof

Whenever His Sympathy touches someone, He would be free from any harm. His Sympathy is good for the slaves for their lives, their religion and their Hereafter. It is because of His Sympathy that He had warned, tempted and promised His slaves; therefore, He had guided them to the means of reform, opened to them the doors of benefits and pushed, away of them, causes of harm.

At-Tawwab The Acceptor of Repentance

God, the Exalted, said; "And accept our repentance. Truly, You are the One Who accepts repentance, the Most Merciful". (Al-Baqarah: 128).

The Linguistic Meaning:

At-Tauwbah: To quit the sin in the best possible manner which is the utmost degree of apology.

Our Praiseworthy Lord is At-Tawwab: He has described Himself as the Acceptor of repentance in its extreme exaggeration. As long as the slave is sincere, God accepts his repentance, no matter how large his sin is, and no matter how often he repeats the sin. The repentance of the slave is surrounded by two repentances from his Lord: Firstly, He opens the door of repentance and guides him to repent, and secondly, He accepts his repentance and is satisfied with him.

The Grandeur of At-Tawwab

He is so Sublime that He is very pleased by the slave's repentance, peace be upon him said: "God is more pleased by the repentance of His slave, more than the slave who lost his riding animal (which is carrying his food and water) and later -to his extreme joy- he found it back."(1)

Here, we have to admire the Greatness of God, for whenever we repent to Him, He accepts it and even sends His Sympathy on us, in spite of His Self-Sufficiency; therefore, it is only logical that we should love Him and praise Him. He is Sublime that He prepared for us the causes of repentance. This will enable the true believer to really love Him and be shy of Him.

Al-Haleem The Most Forbearing

The Exalted, said; "And Allah is Rich (Free of all needs) and He is Most-Forbearing." (Al-Baqrah: 263)

The Linguistic Meaning:

Al-Haleem: The extreme of forbearing.

He is the Most Forbearing, possessing complete ability to forgive, being able to pardon the unfaithful slave and the disbelievers, forbidding His Immediate Punishment from reaching the oppressors, for He is Patient with them but not forgetting them. He is Able to pardon in spite of His Perfect Ability to punish. He is Forbearing towards disobedient slaves that He provides them - with obedient slaves - multiple graces. He waits for the disobedient slaves until they return to the truth and faith. And without His Forgiveness, the heavens and the earth would have perished, as He, the Exalted, said: "Verily! Allah grasps the heavens and the earth lest they should move away from their places, and if they were to move away from their places, there is not one that could grasp them after Him. Truly, He is Ever Most Forbearing, Oft- Forgiving". (Fatir: 41). He is Most Forbearing, gives His slaves abundance and yet they don't thank Him, and still He doesn't punish them or harm them. This sublime Lordly act may teach the creatures to learn from His Pardoning, to not harm those who are ungrateful to them.

The Grandeur of Al-Haleem

No one is more patient or more pardoning than Him All-Mighty, for He postpones this life's punishment over the disbelievers, as they enjoy His Graces and Luxuries, peace be upon him said: "No one is patient about the harm that is heard more than God, they make a parallel to Him, they make a son of Him and yet He provides them with abundance, health and gifts."(1)

He shows the slave how pardoning and generous He is, for He conceals the sins, and guards the slave in spite of his disobedience; therefore, this must be the highest and grandest of all types of forbearing.

As-Hshaheed The All-Witness

God, the Exalted, said: "Verily! Allah is over all things a Witness" (Al-Hajj: 17).

The Linguistic Meaning:

As-Hshaheed: The extreme of witness.

He is the All-Witness: Nothing can be hidden from Him, He is Able to witness every atom in the earth and in the heavens. His Witness is the origin of all witnesses and the greatest of all testimonies, for He is All-Knowing of the nature of all objects.

The Grandeur of As-Hshaheed

He is the Greatest, Clearest and Most Just of any witness, for His Witnessing is comprehensive of all things, and He, the All-Mighty, is over His Throne. His Witness includes: Knowledge, vision, organization and ability. He testifies of His Oneness, when He says: "Allah bears witness that La ilaha illa Huwa (none has the right to be worshipped but He), and the angels and those having knowledge (also give this witness); (He always) maintains His creation in Justice." (Al-Imran: 18). And this is the greatest and highest witness, coming from the Most Sublime Witness. His Witness is also for the oppressed who has neither a helper nor a witness, and this witness necessitates assistance and victory. His Ultimate Witness will be during the Day of Resurrection, over all creatures about their hidden and clear deeds. He, the Exalted, said: "Allah will judge between them on the Day of Resurrection. Verily! Allah is over all things a Witness." (Al-Hajj: 17)

Ar-Razzaq The All-Provider

Ar-Raziq The Ever-Provider

The Exalted, said: "And provide us with sustenance, for You are the Best of sustainers." (Al-Maidah: 114).

And the Praiseworthy, said: "Verily, Allah is the All-Provider, Owner of Power, the Most Strong." (Adh-Dhariyat: 58).

Peace be upon him, said: "God is Al-Musaeer, Al-Qabedd, Al-Basett, Ar-Raziq."

The Linguistic Meaning:

Ar-Razzaq is the extreme of the provider.

Ar-Rezq: Is the constant donation, whether in this life or in the Hereafter. Ar-Rezq has 2 types: apparent which is for the body, such as food, and hidden and this is for the heart and the self such as knowledge and science.

He is the All-Provider, Constant Provider, to all creatures, giving food to every creature, providing it to believers and disbelievers, and also giving it to both the weak and the strong. His Sustenance for His slaves has 2 types: a type with reason: He made agriculture, trade and industry tools (means) by which people get the requested results, for He, the Exalted, said: "And We have provided therein means of living." (Al-Hijr: 20) Meaning causes of livelihood. The other type, God provides it to the slave without a cause: God gives the slave divine sustenance or gift without having the slave to do anything, for it is a gift destined for the slave, with or without the slave's asking.

The Grandeur of Ar-Razzaq and Ar-Raziq:

He is Sublime in giving sustenance to all creatures and this sustenance is for the body, the Exalted said: "And so many a moving (living) creature carries not its own provision! Allah provides for it and for you." (Al-Ankabut: 60) Meaning it can't gather its sustenance, and thus, can't save it for tomorrow, (God provides for it). This means that God makes it easy for it to get its sustenance in spite of its weakness, for He sends sustenance to every creature including the bird in the air and the fish in the water. His Ultimate Sustenance is in Paradise, He, the Exalted, said: "Such will enter Paradise, where they will be provided therein (with all things in abundance) without limit." (Ghafir: 40). And the Praiseworthy said: "(It will be said to them)! Verily, this is Our Provision which will never finish." (Sad: 54). Knowing the grandeur of these two Great Names, we have not to fear poverty, because sustenance is destined to reach us today or tomorrow, peace be upon him said: "Sustenance will call for the slave more than his death."(1)

Al-Quddoos The Most Holy

The Exalted, said: "the King, the Holy, the One free from all defects." (Al-Hashr: 23).

The Linguistic Meaning:

Al-Quddoos: Has two meanings:

- 1- Purity and chastity and that is why Paradise was called the Barn of Al-Quds because of its cleanliness and purity away from all blights of this life, as it is said in Hadeeth Al-Qudsi, that God, All-Mighty said: "Whoever gave up booze while was able to drink it, I would give him a drink of the Barn of Al-Quds."
- 2- Blessing, and from it the name the Holy land, meaning the blessed land.
This Sublime Name is one of the descriptions of greatness, and it also means being free from all defects and shortages which are opposite to His Complete Perfection. He is free from all evil, shortage and shame by His Essence, Attributes and Actions, the Extreme in purity. He is the Praiseworthy because He is full of virtues and graces, Who owns the highest and most perfect attributes. He is the Blessed in His Name, Actions, Essence and His High Descriptions. He is Infallible and Impeccable, for He has no equal, no parallel and no similar to Him, the All-Mighty. He is Pure and Far above children, spouse and peer, for He is Self-Sufficient and in no need of any of them. He is Pure and Free from all bad statements that disbelievers accuse Him of, He, the Praiseworthy, said: "Glorified and Exalted be He! High above (the great falsehood) that they say! (i.e. forged statements that there are other gods along with Allah, but He is Allah, the One, the Self-Sufficient Master, Whom all creatures need. He begets not nor was He begotten, and there is none comparable or coequal unto Him)". (Al-Isra: 43). He has no partner (with Him) in His Divinity, and no assistant or helper in His Godhood. He is the Purifier, purifying whoever He wills, according to His Wisdom, purifying the angels, the prophets, and whoever He chooses among His slaves, such as family members of prophet Mohammad peace be upon him. He, the Exalted said: "Allah wishes only to remove Ar-Rijs (evil deeds and sins) from you, O members of the family (of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم), and to purify you with a thorough purification". (Al-Ahzab: 33). And He, the Exalted, chooses not to glorify anyone among His slaves, according to His Wisdom, P.B.U.H. said: "God does not glorify a nation where the weak cannot get his right from the strong" (1). He deserves to be glorified and dignified by all creatures, and this is why the angels said: "- While we glorify You with praises and thanks and sanctify You." (Al-Bagarah: 30) Meaning we testify that You are free from all defects that do not suit You.

(1) Saheeh Al-Jamee (1857)

The Grandeur of Al-Quddoos

The Sanctification is about monotheism, and it is one of two pillars for unifying the Names and Attributes, and the two pillars are:

- 1- Proving the perfection of the Names and Attributes of God.
- 2- Testifying (acknowledging) the Purity of God away from all defects, which are contrary to the perfection of His Essence, Attributes and Actions. Acknowledging His Purity means dignifying and proving attributes of perfection, for He, the Exalted, is free from forgetfulness and inattention, because of His Perfect Knowledge and Awareness; He is free from fatigue and exhaustion, because of His Perfect Power and Strength; He is free from sleep and slumber, because of His Perfect Life; He is free from injustice and unfairness, because of His Perfect Impartiality; therefore, this Glorious has included every completeness Name and perfection in its widest meaning and connotation. This Sublime Name enables the true believer to really love and glorify the King of all worlds, and also this Name should lead him to purify himself from "Shirk" and injustice, and to be associated with chastity in the body and in the soul, all the time, and to stay away from harmful desires.

Al-Khaleq The Creator

Al-Khallaq The Creator of All

The Exalted said: "He is Allah, the Creator, the Inventor of all things." (Al-Hashr: 24)

He, the Praiseworthy, said: "Verily, your Lord is the All-Knowing Creator." (Al-Hijr: 86).

The Linguistic Meaning:

Al-Kahlq=The creation. It has two meanings:

- 1- Creativity: To find something that was not created before.
- 2- The righteous and correct assessment.

These two Glorious Names cannot be called on anyone but on God, the Exalted, for these Names are purely exclusive to Him.

God, the Praiseworthy, is Al-Kahleq and Al-Khallaq: He brought into being things that didn't exist before, and He estimated their nature in the future, although they were vacuum (nothing), and He mastered their creation without any previous example or model.

The difference between Al-Khaleq and Al-Khallaq:

Al-Khaleq: The Creator Who makes something out of nothing, having a previous knowledge and estimation of the existence outside.

Al-Khallaq: Is the extreme of the Creator, meaning the abundance of the frequent creation of God, the Praiseworthy, frequent in terms of volume and nature. You can only imagine how much God, the Exalted, creates in terms of billions of creatures in one moment of time, with many forms and types. The creation is derived from Him, All-Mighty: He creates with His Hands, He creates with Them if He wills, He creates out of His Intention and His Words, and He creates whenever He wants. He created all creatures, being different in their personalities and different in their statuses, and He knows about their differences. Out of wisdom and benefit, He, the Exalted, created us knowing the best for us, for the source of His creation, is the perfect knowledge and wisdom, and this means that we have to be completely satisfied with the way God had created us: whether created us tall or short, black or white, weak or strong, healthy or ill, able or retarded, as all is out of His Proper Assessment which suits all worlds. He, the Exalted said: "He has created everything and has measured it exactly according to its due measurements." (Al-Furgan: 2). And the Exalted, said: "Verily, We have created all things with Qadar (Divine Preordainments of all things before their creation as written in the Book of Decrees – Al-Lauh-Al-Mahfuz)". (Al-Qamar: 49).

Assessment is derived from His Names Al-Qader and Al-Qadeer, and this is the assessment of all creation before being created and formed(1), and then creating them and making them according to this assessment. This indicates that everything God, the Exalted, had created whether small or big, was created according to precise measurement, in a specified point of time, and in a determined written place, in the Book of Decrees (Al-Lauh Al-Mahfuz), and before its existence; therefore, no atom can escape from it, and nothing can bypass its destiny, in any way.

The Grandeur of Al-Khaleq and Al-Khallaq

The Sublimity of God is evident in His Perfect creation, such as creating people in different stages, as He, the Exalted, said: "While He has created you in (different) stages (i.e. first Nutfah, then Alaqah and then Mudghah, see V. 23: 13, 14)". (Nuh: 14). He created them out of nothing, being assessed in stages.

These two Grand Names give the believer complete certainty that he is a creature created by the Lord and his duty is to worship the Lord, the Praiseworthy said: "And I (Allah) created not the Jinn and mankind except that they should worship Me (Alone)". (Adh-Dhariyat: 56). Therefore, He, the Exalted, didn't create the creation in vain nor will He leave them without His Attention, for He, the Exalted, said: "Did you think that We had created you in play (without any purpose), and that you would not be brought back to Us?" (Al-Muminun: 115). "So Exalted be Allah, the True King". (Al-Muminun: 116). The Praiseworthy said that He created the heavens and the earth so as all creatures believe in God Alone, and to worship Him Alone, He, the Exalted said: "It is Allah Who has created seven heavens and of the earth the like thereof (i.e. seven). His Command descends between them (heavens and earth), that you may know that Allah has power over all things, and that Allah surrounds all things in (His) Knowledge." (At-Talaq: 12). The creature is also to contemplate on the origin of his creation and on the wisdom behind it, the Exalted, said: "And also in your ownselves. Will you not then see?" (Adh-Dhariyat: 21).

The Maker

The Exalted said: "He is Allah, the Creator, the Inventor of all things, the Bestower of forms. To Him belong the Best Names." (Al-Hashr: 24).

The Linguistic Meaning:

Al-Barie, has two meanings:

- 1- The creation: God had created all the creation.
- 2- Being free from something: such as being free from illness, free from defects, free from accusation, and also to dissociate from something, the Exalted, told us Abraham's tale.: "And truly I am innocent of what you join in worship with Him." (Al-An'am: 19).

He is the Creative Maker, as brought things into existence out of nothing. He proves the innocence of the innocent, as He proved the innocence of Moses, P.B.U.H.: "But Allah cleared him of that which they alleged." (Al-Ahzab: 69)

The Grandeur of Al-Barie:

He gives life to living creatures; He creates things to be suitable for His Purpose; He creates things with perfect assessment, He, the Exalted, said: "No calamity befalls on the earth or in yourselves but it is inscribed in the Book of Decrees (Al-Lauh Al-Mahfuz) before We bring it into existence. Verily, that is easy for Allah." (Al-Hadid: 22).

He created every creature to be suitable for its purpose, proper for its existence, made all creation perfect in its type. The believer is to dissociate himself: from any bad desire, from evil intentions, from any behavior that is different from the Al-Sunnah of the prophet, and to distinguish himself away from anyone that doesn't support the Cause of God, His prophets and His followers, the Exalted said about Abraham P.B.U.H. "Indeed there has been an excellent example for you in Ibrahim (Abraham) and those with him, when they said to their people: "Verily, we are free from you and whatever you worship besides Allah: we have rejected you, and there has started between us and you hostility and hatred for ever until you believe in Allah Alone." - Except the saying of Ibrahim (Abraham) to his father: "Verily, I will ask forgiveness (from Allah) for you, but I have no power to do anything for you before Allah." "Our Lord! In You (Alone) we put our trust, and to You (Alone) we turn in repentance and to You (Alone) is (our) final Return." (Al-Mumtahanah: 4).

Al-Musawwir The Creator of Images

The Exalted said: "He is Allah, the Creator, the Inventor of all things, the Bestower of forms." (Al-Hashr: 24)

The Linguistic Meaning:

Al-Musawwir = The one who is able to form, who made for something a special form or image. The image of the creature: it is the appearance of his creation and its nature and description.

Al-Tasweer: forming and creating the images of the creatures, with their distinct features. God, the Praiseworthy, is the Creator of Images, Who gave His creatures their forms as He wished, for He formed each creature with a special image, and with a unique appearance that the creature would be distinguished by it, in spite of its differences and numerousness, and God had created every image not out of an imitated model or copied example, and not out of a standard drawing, as He is far above that.

The difference between: (Al-Khaleq), (Al-Barie) and (Al-Musawwir): (Al-Khaleq): He is the Estimator of all things before creating them, according to His Great Wisdom.

(Al-Barie): He is Able to actually implement what He had estimated, meaning bringing into existence something out of nothing, according to His Perfect Ability to create, because no one is able to create everything that was estimated beforehand, except God, the Exalted.

(Al-Musawwir): Forming every existent being, according to the image that He created for it. Therefore, Al-Khaleq is very broad (general in connotation), and Al-Barie is more specific, while Al-Musawwir is even much more specific.

The Grandeur of Al-Musawwir

He, The Exalted, had given all creatures their numerous images, images that are clear, hidden, materialistic and visual, and in spite of their multitudes, no two species are similar, and no two types are equal, for each creature has its own image, that distinguish it from the others by its color, form and characteristics. He is also Sublime in that He not only created different images of the body, but He also created different forms of behavior, temper and ideology.

To worship God by His Name Al-Musawwir requires us not to imitate doing what He distinguished Himself by, for the act of creating forms and images is contradictory to the notion of worship. Muhammad, P.B.U.H. said: "People who will be punished the most in the Day of Resurrection are those who created images (painters), they will be told: give life to what you have created".(1) And he said, P.B.U.H.: "The most severe punishment in the Day of Resurrection will be on a man who killed a prophet ... or who created (formed) a statue."(1)

(1) Saheeh Al-Jamee (1000)

As-Salam The Peace

The Exalted said: "The King, The Holy, The One free from all defects". (Al-Hashr: 23)

The Linguistic Meaning:

As-Salam: it is derived from safety, which is free from every blight, and being safe from every harm, evil and flaw.

God, the Praiseworthy, is:

- 1- As-Salam: Who is free from all defects and shortcomings that are contrary to perfections.
- 2- People who don't deserve to be punished, are safe from His Torture, and His creatures are safe from His Oppression or Injustice, in this life and in the Hereafter (He is Free from oppression or injustice).

- 3- He also sends His Greetings to His prophets, followers and obedient creatures:
- A- In this life: He, the Exalted said: "Salam (peace) be upon Nuh (Noah) (from Us)." (As-Saffat: 79), "Salam (peace) be upon Ibrahim (Abraham)!". (As-Saffat: 109)
- B- In the Hereafter for the people of Paradise, He, the Exalted, said: "Their greeting on the Day they shall meet Him will be "Salam: Peace (i.e. the angels will say to them: Salamun Alaikum)!" (Al-Ahzab: 44). The Praiseworthy, said: "(It will be said to them): Salam (peace be on you) -a Word from the Lord (Allah), Most Merciful." (Yasin: 58)
- 4- He is Free from: spouse, son, entertainment and play, and Free from equal, parallel, similar and similar in name.
- 5- His Essence (Self) is only One, for His Self is far above everything and clear above everything.
- 6- He is the Source of peace and safety, for every peaceful matter has originated from Him, and derived from Him; therefore, peace cannot be requested except from Him, the Exalted. This Name negates all defects (from Him), and proves all perfections, because whenever a defect is proved to be absent, this proves the perfection, and this is the meaning of (Lailaha illa Allah), and Allahu Akbar.

The Grandeur of As-Salam

If you look at His Perfect Attributes, you will find every attribute is free from its contradictory defects, for His Life is free from death, free from sleep or slumber; His Ability is free from fatigue or tiredness; His Knowledge is free from forgetfulness; His Words are free from lies or oppression; His Richness is free from any need to others; His Godhood is free from anyone sharing it with Him; His Punishment and Torture are free from oppression or injustice; His Rising over His Throne is free from needing anyone to carry It, yet the Throne and those who carry It are in need of Him. Knowing God by this Sublime Name, we have to ask Him for safety in this life and in the Hereafter, and we have to free our tongues and hands from harming the believers, P.B.U.H. said: "The Muslim is one that Muslims became free (immune) from his hand and tongue."(1), and he said: "Peace is one of the Names of God, so spread It among you".(2) Therefore, whoever collected these virtues would gain eternal peace in paradise.

The Exalted said: "Surely! Allah is All-Sufficient for His creatures' needs, All-Knowing". (Al-Baqrah: 115)

The Linguistic Meaning:

Al-Wasee: Described as huge and wide, and also the generous whose provision is vast enough to accommodate everything.

He is the Rich, His Richness is so huge that it can enrich all poor slaves, and His Sustenance is wide enough to reach every creature. He is also the Ultimate Vast: In His Essence, Names, Attributes, Actions, Kingdom, and Power. He has limitless knowledge that even the seas would be limited if they were an ink to His Words, and His Mercy is without an end, He, the Exalted said: "And My Mercy embraces all things." (Al-Araf: 156). His Forgiveness is bigger and wider than the sins, He said: "Verily, your Lord is of Vast Forgiveness" (An-Najm: 32). He is Vast in His Perfect Names, that none is more sublime than Them. He is Vast in His Dominion and Power, for all worlds are for Him, the Praiseworthy, as He said: "And to Allah belong the east and the west, so wherever you turn (yourselves or your faces) there is the Face of Allah (and He is High above, over His Throne). Surely! Allah is All-Sufficient for His creatures' needs, All-Knowing" (Al-Bagarah: 115). In spite of the vastness of these worlds, God had created a creation that is bigger and greater and that is Al-Kursi, He said: "His Kursi extends over the heavens and the earth." (Al-Bagarah: 255), Al-Kursi is literally a footstool or chair and sometimes wrongly explained as the Throne. The Throne is much bigger and no one can estimate Its size, for His Throne is so great and vast, P.B.U.H. said: "The Kursi compared to the Arsh (the Throne) is nothing but like a ring thrown out upon open space of the desert."

The Grandeur of Al-Wasee

There is no end to His Vast Attributes and Descriptions, to the extent that no one can count enough compliments on Him, yet only He can praise Himself, as He actually did.

Al-Latteef The Kind and The Courteous

The Exalted said: "He is Al-Latif (the Most Subtle and Courteous), Well-Acquainted with all things." (Al-Anam: 103)

The Linguistic Meaning:

Al-Latteef: Being courteous, and knowledgeable about tiny things.

God, the Praiseworthy, is the Courteous, knowing about tiny matters, giving mercy by way of unknown ways; He is Kind to His believers, helping their causes by subtle methods.

The Grandeur of Al-Latteef

He is Kind to the believer, as He provides him with what is proper to the needs of the believer, and He is Incomprehensible in His Sublimity, He, the Exalted said: "No vision can grasp Him, but He grasps all vision. He is Al-Latif (The Most Subtle and Courteous), Well-Acquainted with all things." (Al-Anam: 103).

He cannot be seen in this life out of His Kindness to us, yet He can be seen in the Hereafter as a favor, love and generosity. However, He is Incomprehensible in this life and the Hereafter because of His Unimaginable Sublimity and Greatness.

Al-Kabeer The Huge and The Great

The Exalted said: "All-Knower of the Unseen and the seen, the Most Great, the Most High." (Ar-Ra'd: 9)

The Linguistic Meaning:

Al-Kebr: is the big in size, and high in stature.

God is Al-Kabeer: the Great and High in stature, that everything else becomes small in front of His Sublimity, for He is bigger than everything, by His Essence, Attributes, and Actions. He has the glorification in the hearts of His obedient believers. He is greater than being similar to the creatures and all descriptions of flaws or defects.

The Grandeur of Al-Kabeer

No one really knows the Grandeur of His Superiority (Supremacy) except Him (not even an angel, or a messenger), for God had distinguished Himself with It that It became purely exclusive to Him, and anyone who attempts to share It with Him, would be punished, He said in Hadeeth Al-Qudsi: "Superiority is My Dress and Supremacy is My Clothing, and whoever attempts to share Them with Me, I will torture him."(1)

(Allahu Akbar) means: Allah (God) is bigger than everything; bigger by His Essence, Attributes, Stature and Grandeur, and this is the most eloquent term in the Arabic language for the meaning (or the use) of glorification.

As-Hshaker The Thankful

As-Hshakoor The Most Thankful

The Exalted said: "Why should Allah punish you if you have thanked (Him) and have believed in Him. And Allah is Ever All-Appreciative (of good), All-Knowing." (An-Nisa: 147), and He said: "Verily, our Lord is indeed Oft-Forgiving, Most Ready to appreciate (good deeds and to recompense)." (Fatir: 34).

The Linguistic Meaning:

Ashshukr= Growth, and addition, and it is good commendation for good deed.

God, the Praiseworthy, is As-Hshaker and As-Hshakoor: He appreciates any obedience no matter how small it is. He gives multiple rewards in return, and He provides plenty of graces, whereas He is satisfied with little thanks. He thanks His slave by His Speech, praising the slave amongst His angels. Also by His Action, dropping the thanks to him (the slave) amongst other slaves.

The Grandeur of As-Hshaker, As-Hshakoor

He rewards His enemy by giving the enemy benevolence in this life, and by reducing the punishment in the Hereafter, in spite of the fact that the enemy is a very loathsome slave; His Grandeur is evident when He forgave a prostitute who gave water to a thirsty dog.(1) He is so Grand that He rewards His slave (in return for small pious deeds, done in few days), eternal Paradise.

Al-Aaleem The All-Knowing

The Exalted said: "Verily, it is You, the All-Knower, the All-wise." (Al-Baqarah: 32)

The Linguistic Meaning:

To know the thing and recognize its reality.

Our Lord, the Praiseworthy, is Al-Aaleem: Knowing what happened, and what had happened before its happening, what is going to happen, and what will happen before it is happening. His Knowledge and Awareness is comprehensive to all matters, all possibilities and impossibilities, and nothing can escape His Knowledge in any moment of time, in any place, and He is settled over His Throne over all things.

The Grandeur of Al-Aaleem

The Linguistic Meaning:

Preserving the thing, maintaining it and not forgetting.

God, is Al-Hafeedh: Who guards the heavens and the earth, and all that is amongst them, forbidding them their demise until a specific date, He said: "Verily! He, the Exalted, preserves the deeds of the slaves and what evil or good things they did; He saves His slaves from destructive results; He preserves His believers from committing grave sins, from harming their belief, and He strengthens their certainty away from doubt, suspicion and wrong desires.

God, All-Mighty, preserves all things, keeping their nature and description. He is able to maintain the paradoxes and contradictions, as in the case of fire and water, for they are contrary to each other: the water can distinguish the fire or the fire can evaporate the water transforming it into vapor. God has combined contrasts in all elements and components, and in all living organisms such as humans, plants and animals. Without His Ability to preserve and control these factors, these elements would move away from one another, and shrink in their composition, and these are the factors that preserve the human being from total destruction and secure his life by way of God's Preserving Ability.

The Grandeur of Al-Muqaddim, Al-Muakhkhir

He has the grandeur of universal and religious advancement and delay.

Universal Advancement and Delay:

It is lifting some creatures over others, and lowering the status of some below others, and advancing the causes before the causations.

Religious Advancement and Delay:

It is related to God's Love for a particular deed; His Advancement of some rule over other rules, that is suitable for the creatures, as He preferred the prophets over the rest of mankind, preferred some of His slaves over other slaves, and He lowered some of his slaves' ranks below other slaves. He advanced the good over the bad, the knowledgeable over the ignorant, some deeds over other deeds, and His Delay is so grand that He wisely delays punishing the slaves in order that they might repent before the Day of Resurrection, He said: "And if Allah were to seize mankind for their wrong-doing, He would not leave on it (the earth) a single moving (living) creature, but He postpones them for an appointed term." (An-Nahl: 61)

God, the Exalted is Al-Hayeyy: His Supreme Bashfulness is so perfect that It only suits His Sublimity and Grandeur, and It is different from creatures' shyness which is inferior. Our Lord's Bashfulness is incomprehensible to our minds, as It is Bashfulness out of generosity, benevolence and sublimity.

The Grandeur of Al-Hayeyy

His Bashfulness is far away from what is not proper to His Generosity and Mercy, P.B.U.H. said: "God is Bashful and Concealer, loves bashfulness and concealment."(1)

The slave makes his sins in public, although he is extremely weak and poor in front of God, but God, in spite of His Self-Sufficiency and Complete Ability, is Bashful in revealing the sins of His slave. He is even Bashful when choosing His Words, describing things in a more polite way, as He, the Exalted, said: "Or you have been in contact with women (by sexual relations). The Linguistic Meaning:

The Ruler, the Judge, and the Obeyed King.

The Grandeur of Ad-Dayyan

He is so Accurate in His Judgments that He not only punishes the disbeliever doing harm on the believer, but He also punishes the believer for harming the disbeliever, even if it was a slap. Therefore, He prevents His follower from entering the Paradise, although His follower is His beloved creature, until He settles the accounts between His follower and His disobedient slave (His hated creature), for He is Fair to both, extremely Just to both, a reflection of this Grand Name.

The Grandeur of As-Sayyed

No creature can be independent from Him, in any way, in any time, in any place, for if God hadn't created them, they would not exist today, and if He hadn't helped them to face their hardship, they wouldn't find any other helper; therefore, all creatures have to call Him the Ultimate Master, and only Him – All-Mighty - has this right.

Whenever the prophet P.B.U.H. sees a patient, he would say: "O Lord of the people, please take away the disease, please heal. You are the Healer, there is no healing except Your Healing, a healing that doesn't leave any sickness"(1)

The Linguistic Meaning:

Shefaa is overcoming the disease and it is for the body, the heart and the soul.

The Grandeur of As-Hshafy

He created the causes and arranged the results to be preceded by the causes; therefore, He is Able to heal with or without the causes. He is so Grand that He created for every disease its cure. ⁽¹⁾ Saheeh Al-Jamee (3973)

P.B.U.H. said: "Whenever God wants someone to be good, He makes that one knowledgeable in religion, and God is Al-Moutty, and I am Al-Qasem."(I)

The Linguistic Meaning:

Giving and providing.

God, the Praiseworthy, is the Giver to all creation, there is no end to His Giving sustenance and no one can give anything if He wants to stop it. He gives to whoever deserves, and deprives whoever is not worthy, for He is Just and Fair. Whenever He gives then it is a favor and a reform, and whenever He stops (giving) then it is wisdom and righteousness. His Giving is unlimited and for all creatures because God is Perfect in Generosity.

The Grandeur of Al-Moutty

He gives His followers, exclusively, in this life faith and guidance, P.B.U.H. said: "God gives this life (i.e. the benefits of this life) to the ones He loves and the ones He doesn't love, but He doesn't give faith except to the ones He loves."(1) In the Hereafter, He gives those He loves exclusively the best rewards in Paradise, the Exalted said: "A reward from your Lord, an ample calculated gift (according to the best of their good deeds)." (Muhammad: 6)

The Grandeur of At-Tayyeb

To estimate the price.

God, the Praiseworthy, is Al-Musaeer: He makes things cheap or expensive, and no one can object His Estimation because of His Perfect Wisdom and Will. He, the Exalted, with His Fairness, punishes His enemies in the blazing Hellfire, as He said: "Then verily, We have prepared for the disbelievers a blazing Fire." (Al-Fath: 13)

The Grandeur of Al-Musaeer

God, All-Mighty, is the Manager of the universe. The raising and decreasing of prices are up to His Will and Wisdom. Prices raise among the people because of shortage or higher demand, and this is related to His Will and Wisdom.

As-Subboohh The Supreme Holy and The Impeccable

Aaesha (The wife of the prophet P.B.U.H.), may God be satisfied with her, said that the prophet P.B.U.H. used to say during his kneeling and prostration: "Subboohh, Quddoos, The Lord of the angels and the soul."(1)

The Linguistic Meaning:

Tasbeeh means to acknowledge the purity and chastity, meaning to testify that the described one is completely free from all defects and evil, by the most glorified way.

(1) Muslim (487)

God, the Praiseworthy is As-Subboohh: Free from all flaws and shortages, Free from all evil, because of His Ultimate Perfection, and Free from anything that is not proper to His Lordship and Godhood. He is Free from any partner, equal, spouse, son, helper, similar and competitor. He is, the Exalted, far above anyone that might approach Him or compete with Him in His Perfection and Sublimity. He is exalted in His Universal Dominance, and in His Legal Laws, away from evil and oppression. He is As-Subboohh: All existent creatures glorify Him by speech, actions and/or in their hearts, out of their gratefulness to Him, as the Exalted said: "The seven heavens and the earth and all that is therein, glorify Him and there is not a thing but glorifies His Praise. But you understand not their glorification." (Al-Isra': 44)

The Grandeur of As-Subboohh

As-Subboohh is derived from Attasbeehh, which is the greatest of worship. It is the worship of the dwellers of the heavens and the earth. It is inclusive of the greatest description of our Lord, the Praiseworthy. His Chastity and His Purity from all flaws and shortages necessitate His Ultimate Perfection in all of His Attributes, which requires glorification from all creatures. The word (Subhan) cannot be used to describe anyone except God, the Exalted. In the religion, this word is the sign of the highest status of glorification that none deserves except God, the Lord of all worlds.

P.B.U.H. said: "God is Al-Hakam, and He has the rule and dominion."(1)

The Linguistic Meaning:

Hukm is preventing, and Al-Hakem is the one who prevents the foes from doing injustice to one another. It also, means judging with justice.

God, the Praiseworthy, is Al-Hakam: Who judges among His slaves in this life and in the Hereafter, with His Fairness and Justice. His Justice is accurate and precise that takes account of even the smallest atom. He does not over punish, and He returns the rights to their owners; therefore,

He makes sure that every right owner receives his right.

The Grandeur of Al-Hakam

All of His Laws, the religious, destiny and punishment laws are free from any flaw or fault, free from any ignorance or injustice, as they contain perfect wisdom and guidance. His Judgement is valid and suitable for every time and place that brings out benevolence for all creation. God, the All-Mighty, said: "Do they then seek the judgement of (the days of) Ignorance? And who is better in judgement than Allah for a people who have firm Faith". (Al-Maidah: 50)

Al-Jawad The Bountiful

P.B.U.H. said: "Verily God, the Exalted is Jawad, loves Aljood (generosity)."(1)

The Linguistic Meaning:

Aljood: Generosity.

God, the Praiseworthy, is Al-Jawad: the Ultimate Bountiful for all creatures in the heavens and the earth. Every grace descends from His Generosity. He is the Bountiful in His Essence, the Eternal in His Essence, the All-Hearing, and All-Seeing in His Essence.

The Grandeur of Al-Jawad

The generosity of anyone of God's creatures is nothing in comparison to the Most Generous. Every existing generosity is derived from His Limitless Generosity. God, Glorified be Him, loves generosity and He gives to the extent that it is incomprehensible to us. Therefore, the best thing to Him is that we ask (supplicate) Him. P.B.U.H. said: "There is nothing better (more precious) to God than the supplication."(1)

His Ultimate Generosity is shown in His Eternal Paradise, where nothing similar has been seen before, nor been heard of before, nor been thought of -by humans- before.

Al-Wetr The Singular in Name

P.B.U.H. said: "God (Allah), has ninety nine Names, one hundred minus one, whoever counted Them would enter Paradise, and He is Wetr, loves wetr."(1)

The Linguistic Meaning:

Wetr: single, or one individual or odd number.

God, the Praiseworthy, is Al-Wetr: He is the Only One, One in His Name, One in His Odd Number, Who has no partner with Him, no partner in His Lordship and no partner in His Godhood. He is singularly worthy of worship, Only Him Alone deserves to be worshipped. He is the Only One

Who is Eternal in His Existence, the Only One Who is Perfect and Supreme in His Essence, Attributes and Actions, the One without an equal, or similar or parallel.

The Grandeur of Al-Wetr

He, the Praiseworthy, distinguished Himself by being High Alone, distinguished Himself far above all creation by His Unique Oneness and He made all creatures living in pairs. He, the Exalted, said: "And of everything We have created pairs, that you may remember (the Grace of Allah)." (Adh-Dhariyat: 49)

The Exalted said: "And your Ilah (God) is One Ilah (God-Allah) La ilaha illa Huwa (there is none who has the right to be worshipped but He), the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful." (Al-Baqarah: 163)

The Linguistic Meaning:

Al-Ilah= the Worshipped: The One Who is worshipped by the hearts of those that love Him and are submissive to Him.

Our Lord, the Exalted, is the True Ilah, Who is being worshipped by the slaves, out of love and inferiority, out of fear and hope, and out of glorification and obedience. He is the One Who deserves to be worshipped; worshipped exclusively and totally, for every other worshipped object is false and erroneous. God deserves to be worshipped because of His Attributes, Attributes that necessitate us to love Him to the highest degree and to be submissive to Him completely, as the process of worship must include ultimate love with total surrender.

The difference between (Allah) and (Al-Ilah): Al-Ilah was described- and was called-by many of the pagans and disbelievers who had worshipped many objects such as the sun, the moon and the planets. However, none had called nor used the Name (Allah) before, as this Exalted Name is exclusive only to Him, the Praiseworthy.

The Grandeur of Al-Ilah

This Noble Name combines all descriptions of perfection and sublimity; therefore all Beautiful Names and Perfect Attributes are included within this Sublime Name. Whoever supplicates with this Name, is actually supplicating with all Perfect Names of God, the Exalted.
