

Benefits of Piety from the Noble Qur'an

Written by His Eminence Shaykh, the erudite scholar

Muhammad ibn Sālih al-'Uthaymīn

May Allah forgive him, his parents, and all Muslims.

In the name of Allah, the Most Compassionate, the Most Merciful.

Introduction

All praise is due to Allah, Lord of the worlds, and may Allah's peace and blessings be upon our Prophet Muhammad, his family, his Companions, and those who follow them with righteousness until the Day of Judgment.

This is a treatise penned on 10/6/1393 A.H. by His Eminence Shaykh, the erudite scholar Muhammad ibn Sālih al-'Uthaymīn (may Allah have mercy upon him). It is aimed at deriving the benefits of piety in the worldly life and the Hereafter from the noble Qur'an.

Allah Almighty commands piety in His Book so frequently. He even instructs all mankind to be pious. He says:

{...And We have instructed those who were given the Scripture before you and yourselves to fear Allah...}

[Al-Nisā': 131]

There are numerous verses and Hadīths in this regard, and they are well known.

Piety is a goal pursued by the believers, and it enjoys a high status in Islam.

Scholars (may Allah have mercy upon them) mentioned several definitions for piety. Our Shaykh, the author, said <sup>1</sup>: "The most concise and comprehensive definition of piety is that it is taking a shield against the punishment of Allah by carrying out His commands and shunning His prohibitions."

Some said: "Piety is to act in obedience to Allah, with light from Allah, hoping for a reward from Allah, and to avoid disobedience of Allah, with light from Allah, fearing the punishment of Allah."

We implore Allah Almighty to grant us righteousness and piety and to enable us to do what pleases Him; and we ask Him to render this work sincerely done for His sake and make it beneficial for His servants and to give abundant rewards for its author, Shaykh Muhammad ibn Sālih al-'Uthaymīn (may Allah have mercy upon him).

And may Allah's peace and blessings be upon His slave and messenger, our Prophet Muhammad, his family, his Companions, and those who follow them with righteousness until the Day of Judgment.

In the name of Allah, the Most Compassionate, the Most Merciful.

All praise is due to Allah; we praise Him, seek His help and forgiveness, and repent to Him. We seek refuge with Allah from the evil of our selves and from our bad deeds. Whoever Allah guides, none can lead astray, and whoever He leads astray, none can guide. I bear witness that there is no deity worthy of worship but Allah, alone, with no partner, and I bear witness that Muhammad is the messenger and slave of Allah; may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, his family and Companions, and those who follow them with righteousness until the Day of Judgment. Fear of Allah is the best provision for one's religion and worldly life. Piety is creating a shield between oneself and the punishment of Allah Almighty by carrying out His commands and shunning His prohibitions, in such a way that makes one a true servant of the Almighty Lord. Indeed, piety is the essence of the entire religion.

With this, we conclude the benefits of piety mentioned in the noble Qur'an, as we have followed them from beginning to end. They amount to 64 benefits, after omitting the repeated ones. In total, they are 107 benefits.<sup>2</sup>

Praise be to Allah, Lord of the worlds, by Whose grace good things are accomplished, and Who bestows His favor upon whomever He wills and guides them to the truth, and Who leads many astray, for a wise purpose He intends. Glory be to Allah, the All-Knowing, the Beneficent, the Ever-Merciful. O Allah, bestow upon us mercy from You; indeed, You are the Bestower. O Allah, make us among those possessing those traits and so You are pleased with them and they are pleased with You; O Allah, the Ever-Lasting, the Sustainer, and the Possessor of the dominion of the heavens and earth.

<sup>2</sup> It is noted that there are unnumbered benefits lying within the original treatise by his Eminence Shaykh (may Allah have mercy upon him). So, they add up to 117 benefits.

and Who bestows His favor upon whomever He wills and guides them to the truth, and Who leads many astray, for a wise purpose He intends. Glory be to Allah, the All-Knowing, the Beneficent, the Ever-Merciful.

O Allah, bestow upon us mercy from You; indeed, You are the Bestower.

O Allah, make us among those possessing those traits and so You are pleased with them and they are pleased with You; O Allah, the Ever-Lasting, the Sustainer, and the Possessor of the dominion of the heavens and earth.

And may Allah's peace and blessings be upon our Prophet Muhammad, his family, his Companions, and those who follow them with righteousness until the Day of Judgment.
